

Family Outreach Counsellor

SSCS has a temporary part-time (15 hrs/wk) vacancy for a Family Outreach Counsellor based in Squamish for the period February 15 to September 30, 2019.

Join us as a family outreach counsellor and make a huge difference in the lives of local families.

The family outreach counsellor:

- Assesses clients and their families
- Develops, implements and evaluates family-based intervention plans
- Participates in the development, implementation and evaluation of client service plans in conjunction with the integrated case management team

Do you have what it takes?

- Bachelor's degree in a related human / social service field
- Two years' recent related experience working with families (or an equivalent combination of education, training and experience)
- Knowledge and strong understanding of the child protection system and the role of the Ministry of Children and Family Development
- Awareness of issues such as family violence, mental health, substance abuse, child development, socioeconomics, cultural diversity and disabilities
- Experience dealing with parent education, strategy development, mediation, counselling, advocacy, community networking and life skills management
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to work independently and as a member of a professional team
- Ability to build collaborative relationships with social workers and community stakeholders
- Ability to work outside regular office hours including after school, evenings and weekends

Compensation: As per the BCGEU Collective Agreement, the starting wage is $26.75 an hour.

Apply today

jobs@sscs.ca

Responses will be made only to those who are interviewed.