

Residential Care Worker

Our Community Living residence located in Squamish offers 24/7 care with employees typically scheduled to work an 8 hour shift

We are currently looking for Residential Care Worker to work on a temporary full-time basis.

As a residential care worker, you'll work within the home of four adults with developmental disabilities. You'll join a team that's maintaining a positive home life for these adults and building their sense of belonging through experiences and relationships that help them feel included, understood and supported.

Do you have what it takes?

We're looking for someone who has:

- A Grade 12 education, and preferably a certificate or diploma in a social service field
- Completed courses or workshops related to supporting adults with developmental disabilities
- At least one year's experience working with adults with developmental disabilities
- A commitment to and interest in serving adults with developmental disabilities
- Good communication skills, both written and verbal
- The ability to work as part of a team with a variety of staff members, professionals and other members of the community
- Good health (a doctor's letter stating that your health is sufficient for the job, TB test clearance. Hepatitis B vaccine or signed waiver and vaccination report)
- Valid First Aid Certificate in Adult Care
- Valid Class 4 driver's licence or willingness to obtain

Compensation: As per the BCGEU Collective Agreement, the starting wage is $19.45/hr.

Apply today with your resume.

E-mail: jobs@sscs.ca

Responses will be made only to those who are interviewed.