

Child and Youth Life Skills Worker

Nature of position: Permanent

Compensation: $23.10/hour

Position posted on: October 03, 2022

Closing Date: Open until filled

Preferred Start date: October 17, 2022

Location: Whistler office and in community

Working Hours: 5 hours/week. Shifts typically occur after school hours: 3pm-5:30pm, 2 days/week. Working hours are determined by both worker and client availability and may vary. Availability after school and during school breaks preferred

The Child and Youth Life Skills Worker role (formerly titled as Special Needs Children's Resource Worker) is designed to function as part of a team, to work with special needs children and their families and other professionals involved with the family on specific goals as outlined in the service plan.

Qualifications:

1. Minimum Grade 12 with preference given to post secondary education in child development.
2. Minimum one year experience working with children with special needs.
3. Valid Driver's License
4. Valid First Aid Certificate.

Skills and Abilities

1. Ability to provide suitable activities for the child within the guidelines of the service plan.
2. Capable of developing trust relationships with children and their families.
3. Good communication skills, written, verbal and non-verbal.
4. A commitment to family centred practice.
5. Ability to develop accessible community resources.

Requirements:

1. Criminal record review
2. Signed confidentiality form
3. Approved reference check
4. Proof of full Covid-19 vaccination required

Benefits and Perks:

Vacation & Leave: Employees accumulate 6% vacation pay on all hours worked in the first and second year of employment.

Other Perks: Casual dress, paid sick days, and more.

Compensation: $23.10 per hour.

Apply today at: jobs@sscs.ca