

Outreach Worker – Stopping the Violence

We're looking for a part-time Outreach Worker (18.5 hours per week, starting immediately) in our Stopping the violence (STV) program based in Pemberton.

The objective of this position is to assist women who have experienced violence, abuse, or threats, in creating a positive lifestyle that ensures their safety.

Do you have what it takes?

- A Grade Twelve (12) diploma.
- Three years' experience and a working knowledge of theory, practices and principles surrounding women and violence.
- Proven record of experience working with women in a support capacity, in both one-on-one and group settings.
- A commitment to the philosophies and values expressed within the program and organization
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Valid BC class 5 driver's licence
- Criminal Record Search.
- Signed Confidentiality form.
- Access to reliable vehicle
- Approved reference check.

As per BCGEU Collective agreement, starting wage is $23.10 per hour

Apply today

jobs@sscs.ca

Responses will be made only to those who are interviewed.