Shelley Moore, Speaker

Originally from Edmonton, and now based in Vancouver, British Columbia, Shelley Moore is a highly sought-after teacher, researcher, speaker, and storyteller and has worked with school districts and community organizations around the world, in supporting and promoting equity for all learners. Her first book entitled, "One Without the Other" was released in July 2016 to follow up her TEDx talk.

Shelley completed an undergraduate degree in Special Education at the University of Alberta, her masters at Simon Fraser University, and is currently a PhD candidate at the University of British Columbia.

WORKSHOPS

Advocating for Inclusion – Friday, March 4th 7pm – 9pm

In this session, we will talk about what inclusion is and why it is important for all children. We will review the building blocks needed for inclusion's advocacy, from kindergarten all the way through to high school and beyond.

The Evolution of Inclusion – Saturday, March 5th 10am – 12pm

How we understand inclusion is shifting. Rather than trying to include a few students who are different, we are striving to teach TO the difference. In this session we will look at how we can get to know our students so that we can respond to, plan, and create space for their all of their diverse strengths and identities.
